Judge Parker is "a mile high," as the Elks would say. The place where he inserted the bodkin into Secretary Taft's Greensboro speech is still emitting the hot air that inflated the Taft deliverances.

By the way, lest we forget! If you see any big splashed place on the ceiling, it is where Secretary Taft hit when Judge Parker put that exposure bomb under him and pulled the trigger.

By making a Republican Congress do what it did Colonel Roosevelt has placed the Republican party in a position during this campaign that it will have to face the charge of burglarizing the Democratic platforms.

The Prohibition party of Tennessee has decided not to put a ticket in the field this Fall. The Prohibition party has been in enough campaigns to learn that the voters won't stand for water when they've got to save the State.

Monseur Vuneau-Varilla just had to get into the Dreyfus' affair. You will probably remember him as the slick duck who helped Panama to "stand up as one man" till the goods were delivered to Roosevelt.

Wiring in and wiring out doesn't get much in politics these times. The people have got to the pitch that they demand that the politician shall walk a chalk line without wobbling and possess sufficient rigidity of backbone to stand for the courage of his convictions.

An eminent New York lawyer has written an elaborate opinion holding that "the majority rules in every case." We hate to file a dissenting opinion, but in behalf of some of our married friends it must be pointed out that the lady of the house is no majority.

DEATH TRAGIC

ACCIDENT TO A. & M. STUDENT

Struck By Southern Train in Pullen Park Sunday Afternoon—Other News and Notes From State Capital.

Raleigh, N. C., July 16.—Not in a great while have the people of Raleigh been so shocked as at the news of the death of Mr. William Boylan, Jr., the twenty-year-old son of Mr. William Boylan, of this city, at the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead, yesterday afternoon. He had left Raleigh only the day before with a gay party of young friends in the best of health and spirits apparently and the news of his death came as a great shock to relatives and friends. First there came a telegram to his father saying "come at once; Billy is very ill," and following close upon this came another breaking the news of the death. The young man had been in the sound during the morning and was dressed for an afternoon dip waiting with a number of friends in a room on the third floor for the party to gather. He had eaten a very hearty dinner. He was seen to gasp two or three times and before anyone could reach him, he pitched out backwards to the ground three stories beneath. It is believed that he was dead before his body reached the ground. Acute indigestion is thought to have effected a naturally weak heart and caused instant death. The remains were brought here last night and the funeral was conducted at six o'clock this evening.

Cadet T. H. Brevard, of the A. & M. College, was very severely injured last night in Pullen Park, near the college, by being struck by the Southern passenger train from Keysville. He and Cadet Irely were walking on the tracks at a point where the Seaboard and Southern tracks are parallel and they stepped from the Seaboard to the Southern track to avoid the Seaboard fast train from Richmond. They did not realize that the Keysville train was approaching on the Southern. The baggage clerk on the Seaboard train shouted a warning to them as his train ran by. Young Irely jumped off in time but Brevard was struck and rolled off to the side of the track. His leg was badly broken, his shoulder dislocated and severe bruises inflicted. He will recover. He is from Buncombe county, his guardian being A. F. P. King, mayor of Hendersonville.

The negro cook on No. 66, Seaboard train, was brought here yesterday evening and carried to Rex Hospital very badly injured from falling out of the door of the Pullman car as he went to throw a pan of water out he seemed to have lost his balance and, pan cook and all rolled out over the steps. He was badly shaken up but will recover.

Mr. T. H. Cherry, who has for a number of years held a clerkship in the State Department of Agriculture, died yesterday at his home in Edgecombe county. He had been in failing health for several months, suffering from consumption. He leaves a wife and three children.

ACT OF NEGRO FIEND

LEO LACY BADLY TREATED

Returning to His Home, Was Set Upon Sunday Night By Black Brute Who Beat and Choked Him Into Insensibility.

An unknown negro lurking around the premises, bent on robbery, made an outrageous assault upon young Mr. Leo Lacy, about 17 years old and a son of Mr. Henry C. Lacy, residing at Tenth and Princess streets, Sunday night. The young man was beaten and choked into insensibility by the brute whom Mr. Lacy endeavored to drive off the premises. The assault occurred about 10:30 o'clock and his father returning home a short time later found his son in the front yard unconscious from the attack of the ruffian.

Young Mr. Lacy had been visiting out at Seventeenth and Market streets and returning home he saw lurking in an alley by the house the form of a negro. The house is situated some distance back from the street at the southwest corner of Tenth and Princess, and catching sight of the negro, the young man withdrew until he could arm himself with a stone, having no idea that the negro would show fight. Returning, the negro had changed his position from the side of the house to the rear and going back there the young man was set upon by the black ruffian, who jumped from a hiding place back of the steps and dealt him a stunning blow between the eyes before he had any idea of the presence of the negro. The negro beat the young man in the face and choked him so badly that he had not still recovered when his father arrived on the scene a little later. Mr. Lacy can give very little description of the negro, and it is doubtful if his arrest will ever be accomplished. The assault was an outrageous one and if the black man is caught there is no doubt but that he will be severely dealt with. Young Mr. Lacy was weak from his encounter yesterday, but will suffer no very serious consequences from the experience.

New Trap for Gun Club.

The new Leggett trap for the Wilmington Gun Club, one of the latest types, has arrived and will be installed for the regular weekly shoot Friday afternoon. The old traps will be kept for supplementary purposes. There is now much interest in trap shooting in Wilmington and there is talk of a State tournament here the latter part of August or the first of September.

MANY BEFORE MAYOR

Jim Marine Bound Over For Secret Assault With Intent to Kill—Half Dozen or More For Roads and Farm.

The Mayor had the usual "full house" at the session of the Monday municipal court yesterday. Half a dozen or more got sentences to the roads and the county farm while several were sent over for the Superior Court next week. Chief among the latter defendants was young Jim Marine, charged with secretly assaulting with intent to kill young Mike Bryant, who was stabbed in the back in a saloon on Castle street one night about ten days ago. For a time it was thought that Marine's victim would die in the hospital, the knife blade having penetrated one of his lungs, but he finally recovered and was able to attend the trial yesterday. Marine remained silent at the trial and the only witnesses for the prosecution were Messrs. John Walton and Joe Roderick and young Bryant himself. Their story was complete and the Mayor held Marine under justified bond of $250 which he could not give and went to jail.

Peter Berry, colored, was taxed with $5 including costs for disorderly conduct, but he couldn't raise the dust and was given thirty days on the roads.

Rachel Roberts, an old offender, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was given 30 days on the farm.

Walter Shambley, colored, charged with resisting an officer, was fined $10 and costs in default of which he went to the roads for 30 days. An-

EDITOR BRINGS SUIT

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

Alleges Breach of Contract in Late Negotiations For Sale of Half Interest in Newspaper and Job Business—The Complaint.

In New Hanover Superior Court yesterday afternoon summons was filed in an interesting suit which Mr. George W. Brunson, Jr., formerly of this city but now editor of the Greenville (S. C.) Daily News, brings against Mr. R. P. McClammy, proprietor of the Evening Dispatch, of this city, alleging damages for an alleged breach of contract last July when Mr. Brunson was negotiating with Mr. McClammy for a purchase of a half interest in the Dispatch newspaper and job office. Mr. Brunson has been in the city several days looking into his interest in the matter and the suit was brought yesterday afternoon by his attorneys, Messrs. Jno. D. Bellamy & Son Rountree & Carr and Herbert McClammy, Esq.

While no complaint has been filed, it is understood that Mr. Brunson will allege that he had bargained with Mr. McClammy for a half interest in the paper and job office for $10,000 and that the papers were all ready to be signed when Mr. McClammy withdrew from the propositon. Mr. Brunson was at that time editor of the Charlotte News and upon the strength of his Wilmington proposition alleges that he gave up that position and came to Wilmington finally to be disappointed in the transaction. It is further understood that Mr. Brunson will allege a financial loss in being unable to get the paper and job printing outfit and an effort will be made to get an accounting of the books of the enterprise to support this contention. Mr. Brunson was for a time after this connected with the Norfolk Dispatch until several months ago he was offered the editorship of the Greenville, S. C., News, the leading paper of Piedmont South Carolina. Mr. Brunson has given $200 bond for the maintenance of the suit and will return to Wilmington when the case is tried in the Superior Court here this Fall. Mr. McClammy, of course, has employed able counsel and will make answer to the complaint at the proper time so that the litigation promises to be very interesting.

Mr. Brunson was for several years editor of the Dispatch and is well and favorably known here. He left this morning for Charleston, S. C., where he will attend the South Carolina Press Association in session at the Isle of Palms this week.

T. L. RUTH IN JAIL

T. L. Ruth, who gained some notoriety in the State a few years ago as author of "The Life of an Outcast Husband" and of more recent fame because of his invention of perpetual motion, which fact was called to the attention of President Roosevelt by a telegram, was given trial before Justice Furlong yesterday afternoon upon a charge of larceny by trick. Ruth is a huckster now and conducts a place on Market, near Second street. Last week Capt. J. O. Robinson, of the sharple Annie, trading between Wilmington and Shallotte, Brunswick county, brought a number of chickens and eggs to the city to be disposed of to the best advantage. Ruth met the sharpie on its arrival and represented to him, according to the testimony for the prosecution, that he would pay him a cent more per dozen for the eggs and a little more than anybody else for the chickens. Capt. Robinson thought that was satisfactory and told Ruth he could take the produce up to his place and he would call in later and get the money, which Ruth told him was in waiting. Capt. Robinson avers that he made repeated demands on the huckster for the returns of his produce and that he received only a few dollars and there was a balance of $18.85 due him. Ruth refused to pay this on the ground that he didn't have the money. Then Capt. Robinson came to Justice Bornemann and secured a warrant for

BOAT PARTY RESCUE

Thrilling Experience of Party of Young People at Wrightsville Beach Sunday.

SEASICK AND IN DANGER

Houseboat Clifford Boarded by Heavy Seas Was Disabled While Passengers and Crew Were In Peril Several Hours.

A party of eleven young people from the city and the hotels on the beach were rescued Sunday afternoon after a trilling experience on the houseboat Clifford, owned by Mr. S. A. Schloss and kept at the Hotel Tarrymoore as a pleasure craft. The party, which included Mr. J. B. Fountain, Miss Fountain and one or two other lady and gentleman friends of this city and others stopping at the hotels on the beach, chartered the boat about 3 o'clock in the afternoon for a trip up to Moore's Inlet and a short distance outside.

A heavy sea was running at the time and when the boat reached the breakers on the bar, she was boarded boarded by a heavy sea which smashed in the side of the engine room and disabled the machinery, the motive power being gasolene with a sparker operated from dry batteries. As soon as the power was gone, the boat began rolling, the surf breaking over her and the passengers were obliged to take to the uppermost deck to escape being washed ashore from the helpless craft. Most of the party became sea sick and in imminent peril lest the boat should be swamped several yards from shore, the experience of those on board was anything but inviting.

Capt. C. D. Maffitt, of this city, an experienced mariner, happened to be seated on the second floor veranda of the Hotel Tarrymoore as the craft passed up the Sound and seeing the heavy seas breaking in the inlet, he knew that the party was in danger. Mr. Moore, proprietor of the hotel gave him the use of his field glasses and presently Capt. Maffitt saw the signal of distress from the Clifford. He knew that those on board were in extreme peril and he hastened to the pier in front of the hotel to secure assistance. Finally he secured the yacht Idleon, which recently came into Wrightsville from Morehead City, and manning it with Capt. Marine, of the launch Atlantic, Capt. Wofindin, of the schooner Gloria, and himself, they put out to the boat in distress and found those on board in an extremely perilous condition. With the greatest difficulty the Idleon was brought as near alongside as possible and a line was thrown to the Clifford. The crew and a part of the passengers had put on all the life preservers there were on board and several of the ladies had fainted under the excitement.

An anchor had been dropped soon after the boat was disabled, but the chain had parted and another that had been let go was holding the craft at the time but it parted also soon after the rescuing party reached the scene so that their rescue was timely indeed. One by one the members of the party were gotten aboard the Idleon and about 7 o'clock after being out nearly four hours, they were brought in to the hotel pier. Capt. James Burriss, pilot on the Clifford, declined to leave the boat and borrowing an anchor, he remained outside all night with the disabled craft until she could be gotten in yesterday. Capt. Witt, master of the boat, and the engineer came ashore. Capt. Burriss showed remarkable bravery all through and is said to have advised against attempting to go outside from the first. The incident was the talk of the beach Sunday afternoon and night and yesterday there were many wild reports of the affair in the city. The facts are, however, about as given. Passengers aboard the Clifford were rather disposed not to talk of the matter for publication, evidently having experienced enough publicity about the matter already.

Bowling Alley Tournament.

Four teams of skilled players from the Carolina Yacht Club began a bowling tournament on the alleys of the club at Wrightsville Beach last night. Bowling is a very favorite pastime at the club and some exciting contests are expected to be pulled off during the week.

APOLOGY DUE TO ROOSEVELT.

In his Greensboro speech Secretary Taft did President Roosevelt and the Republican party an unpardonable injustice. To Roosevelt's wisdom and strenuousness and the beneficent paternalism and protection of the Republican party he gave credit for prosperity in the United States. He entirely neglected to claim credit for the same source of great blessings for the prosperity of Canada, the prosperity of Mexico, the prosperity of England, the prosperity of Germany, the prosperity of France, the prosperity of Japan, the wonderful prosperity of Australia, and the prosperity about all the other countries under the Sun including Russia, which is not handing around the hat although she is groaning under the burdens of a late war and her people have been raising more disturbances than crops.

If Roosevelt and the Republican party is not responsible for the prodigal prosperity of the world it is a shame that all foreign countries are prospering instead of eeking out a miserable existence in order to emphasize and magnify our Roosevelt prosperity. Canada, without any Roosevelt and not a shadow of the G. O. P., is drawing figures on us to prove that we are not in it with her in the prosperity column, and as for Australia she is trying to give us the horse-laugh because her prosperity is doubling ours and Australians are going to Europe by thousands to spend their money in seeing the sights. The prosperity of Australia is such that a correspondent of the London "Commercial Intelligence" writes that it "has led to a wholesale exodus of prosperous Australians to Europe." A considerable proportion of the departures, says the correspondent, represent members of leading Australian mercantile houses, who are going to buy merchandise. The same correspondent lets it out that we are going to share the Australian prosperity, as "there will be a large increase in the number of orders placed in Europe and America at first hand by the principals of Australian houses."

We've got the bulge on Australia, however, for we've got a Teddy Roosevelt and a G. O. P. to burn incense to for our prosperity while the measly and sordid Australians say their prosperity is due to such groveling and earthy causes as the industry of the people immense yields of crops, a big wool clipping, and good prices. It is enough to excite our commiseration for Australia while we've got a Roosevelt to sacrifice our bull yearlings to for his overpowing benevolence and prodigal beneficence in deluging us with so much prosperity that we can't raise a grunt or do a kicking stunt.

Just as a sample of how Australia is trying to run the hog over us on prosperity, it is mentioned that New South Wales had a population of 252,000 in 1856 and now turns up with 1,504,000. The wool output has increased from 1,303,070 pounds to 13,446,260. The prosperity of that province of Australia is attributed to such disgusting things as wool, wheat and a people who do things, instead of having a President and a party that can ladle out prosperity for the mere privilege of holding all the offices. There isn't any use of wasting any more time on Australia, for that thoughtless country announces that its commerce has grown so tremendously under what is practically free trade that Parliament is to pass a bill to bring in under the 15 and 20 per cent. duties all articles not specified in the free list. Instead of standing pat in the face of prosperity, the Australians are such sapheads that they are confident that they can do still better with their little tariff further reduced. Such foolhardiness as that is enough to gald our G. O. P. elephant so he couldn't walk around during the campaign.

FAVORITISM AND PATERALISM

The Columbia Record had an excellent editorial on Saturday concerning "Favoritism to Trusts," and we get from it the following:

"Although President Roosevelt seemingly is earnest and may be enthusiastic in his warfare on the trusts, having instituted several proceedings to punish violators of law by such corporations, there is evidence that some of his official family are either not too sympathetic with his course in that regard or are actually opposed to it. Secretary Shaw some time since deposited money in New York banks to enable them to import gold without losing the use of their own money, doing this, he said, to relieve the stringency in the money market, which shortness, if it existed at all, was not the result of industrial conditions, but of Wall Street speculation and gambling. Instead of giving all banks a fair showing he showed special favoritism to the National City bank owned by the Standard Oil Company, it having information of his plan before others and having received more government deposits than all the other banks combined. This raised a mighty protest, naturally, from other banks and the Secretary made some sort of explanation not at all satisfactory, but no charges of corruption were made in this instance, although appearances easily would have made such plausible on the face. This same bank was, also, very, very tardy about returning the government's gold, so much so that the President took preemptory steps and compelled it to deposit forthwith. At his instigation, no doubt, official announcement was made that the next time the national treasury came to the aid of the speculators all banks would have a square deal and Rockefeller's bank would not again have any advantage over them."

Shaw, however, can plead precadence as an excuse. It is a very late thing since the Republican party quit practicing favoritism and got square deal notions in its head. Shaw, in letting the New York bank (or banks) have the government's money to do business with, was carrying out the paternalistic policy of the Republican party. The people's money wasn't bringing any interest while it was loaned to the New York financiers under the plausibility of relieving "the financial stringency." We know people who would like to do business with Shaw on the same terms. It is powerfully paternalistic for the United States Treasurer to reach in the government's big box and help out the banks when they are trying to furnish enough money to the "frenzied financiers," and Secretary Shaw thought he was only showing his good Republicanism by helping out the boys and charging no interest. The man at Oyster Bay just changed the rule on him without giving notice.

—The newspapers of Paris are interested in Mr. and Mrs. Longworth. They say of Mrs. Longwrth hat "she is the best dressed Parisienne in Paris"; and the understanding is that her gowns were made in Washington and New York.

—A Texas woman says that it is a mistake to suppose men would be domestic if their wives should feed them better. She says a highly fed man becomes so frisky that it is impossible to control him and that the only way to hold him to a condition of humility and subjection is to serve him plain food and make him bring in the wood.—Houston Post.

—Mr. Brownlow may take consolation from the fact that if Secretary Taft is the next Republican President, he may in consequence of his opinion expressed at Greensboro, N. C., appoint Democrats to the Federal offices, in which event Mr. Sanders and Mr. Evans will have nothing to dispense to their faithful touters. In fact, whole heaps of things may occur to mitigate the poignancy of Mr. Brownlow's defeat. — Chattanooga Times.

TWINKLINGS.

—"I have never married," observed the romantic bachelor, "because I believe in love at first sight."—Pittsburg Post.

—Young Wife—How do you like my cooking? Don't you think I've begun well? Husband—Um—yes. I've often heard that well begun is half done.—Punch.

—She—How much do you earn a year? He—About $2,000. "But we can't live on that!" "You asked me how much I earned. I make about $20,000."—Life.

—"After all, it may be the devil's a gentleman?" "Well, you may be sure he'll be civil enough to tell all of us to walk in, and welcome!"—Atlanta Constitution.

—"You know Bragg, of course. I think he belongs to your church." "Well, Bragg doesn't think that." "No? How do you mean?" "He thinks the church belongs to him."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—Stella—What a queer waltz! The partners all tramp on each other and tear their clothes in double-quick time. Bella—That's the newest thing, dear! It is the Steplivelyplease.—New York Sun.

—Customer (inspecting the sample the waiter has brought him)—How do you distinguish your clam chowder from plain vegetable soup? Waiter—We have different labels on the kettles, sir. Wish any coffee?—Chicago Tribune.

—The Artist—Can the editor see me now, do you think? The Sharp Boy—No! O' course not! 'e 's 'is room, and got the door shut.—The Sketch.

—High Financier—My son, I am pained to hear that you are at the foot of the class. Son—Why, pa, I judged from your testimony that it was proper not to know anything at all.—New York Sun.

—Cain had introduced his wife to the rest of the family. "Where did you get her?" asked Adam, suspiciously. "I decline to answer," responded Cain. Thus, as there was no higher court to compel him to answer, he cleverly avoided getting himself into a serious theological mix-up.—Chicago Tribune.

—The mother of the Gracchi was praising her boys. "She makes me tired," exclaimed the woman on the other side of the backyard fence. "The little imps stone our pigeons and tie tin cans to our dog's tail, just the same as the kids in the tenement-house across the alley." From which we learn that no boy is a hero to the next-door neighbor.—Chicago Tribune.

THREW AWAY LIFE BY DRINKING

KEELEY CURE RESCUED HIM

Did Not Realize Desperate Situation Till His Health, Business and Influence Were Leaving Him—Praise for Keeley.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

I had thrown away a large portion of my life drinking and did not realize it until my health, business and influence were leaving me. I had got to the place where I could not eat or sleep; then I began to think what was best for me, and soon decided that perhaps Keeley Treatment would redeem me, and, without asking the advice of any one, or even telling any one of my intention, I went home and annouced to my wife that I had decided to take the Keeley Treatment. I then had only twenty-five minutes in which to catch the train. I got ready and made the train and landed at the Keeley Institute at Greensboro the next morning. There I found one of the niecst places in the world. The manager met me at the door and welcomed me in. All who were connected with the institute were so kind and attentive to me that it made me feel as if I would like to stay there all the time.

Now I want to say that the month I spent at the Keeley Institute was one of the most pleasant of my entire life. I followed the advice of the physician and obeyed the rules of the Institute to the very letter, and, after I had been taking the treatment about ten days I commenced to improve, and fattened about a pound per day. Now my health is better than it has been for ten years and I have eaten more and digested it more thoroughly than ever before in my life. I sleep well, and the world seems brighter; my business improved wonderfully and best of all my wife says I am the best man on earth, and she the happiest of women. To say the least I would not have missed the treatment for ten times the cost to me. I have not taken a drop of intoxicants since I left the Institute, and have not the slightest desire to do so.

GET INSIDE.

Your Friends and Neighbors in Wilmington Will Show You How.

Rubbing the back won't cure backache.

A liniment may relieve, but can't cure.

R. F. Rowan, clerk with L. W. Davis' Clothing House, residing on Castle street, between Sixth and Seventh, says: "I strained myself lifting a heavy box, and suffered great pain across my back for a long time. I used plasters and liniment, but they did me no good. I could hardly stand up straight, my back was so weak. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised in our newspapers, I went to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. I felt better the next day and continued using them according to directions and my back regained its old strength. I was simply surprised at the result. I will gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills every time for backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—doan's—and take no other.

Only 82 Years Old.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over 60 years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other. **

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great Northern Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped, to become a ruinous break, devastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He writes: "Three doctors gave me up to die of lung inflamation caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life. Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Mr. Ralph B. King, of Fayetteville, head of the King wholesale and retail drug store, corner Hay street and Market Square, died at 10:30 o'clock Saturday.

—Charlotte Observer: Mr. R. Neal Elliott, of Sharon township, yesterday brought to the city a monster cabbage, probably the largest ever seen in the city. The head was about two feet in diameter, solid, and weighed 33 pounds. It was on exhibition at Kirby's store and attracted quite a good deal of notice.

—T. N. Gray, colored, was arrested in Williamston Wednesday by Secret Service Officer J. T. Leggett and taken to Washington. The charge against Gray is for robbing the postoffice in Jamesville June 30. He broke into the office at night and succeeded in securing about $50 in cash, besides a quantity of stamps.

—Work has begun on the large plant of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, in East Durham. This large factory will be used for the manufacture and storage of fertilizer. A new lumber mill has been completed in East Durham. This plant will be for the storage of lumber and has a capacity of 1,000,000 feet.

—Mr. John G. Weber, a son-in-law of Mrs. Mary Henry, whose engagement to Mrs. Smiley J. Brown was announced a few days ago, notified The Observer, last night, that the marriage, which was to have been solemnized next Wednesday, would not take place. This is done for reasons best known to the family.

—Raleigh special, July 15: William Boylan aged 19, the only son of William M. Boylan, of Raleigh, was instantly killed this afternoon by falling from an upper window of the Atlantic Hotel, at Morehead City. His family is one of the most prominent in the State. He was until recently a cadet at the Virginia Military Institute.

—At Raleigh Sunday afternoon Thomas Brevard, a cadet at the Agricultural and Mechanical College, was badly hurt at Pullen Park. In getting out of the way of a train on the Southern Railway track he got in the way of one on the Seaboard. His worst injury is a broken leg. His shoulder is hurt. His home is at Fairview, near Hendersonville.

—Herbert Shoe, living near Rocky River, Cabarrus county, was shot near Salisbury Saturday night while beating a freight into Salisbury. The ball entered his back and came out, slightly perforating his lungs. He tells a mysterious story. He says he was shot by a policeman while running on the car. No officer knows anything of it and his tale is not believed. A brother and his pal were arrested.

—A short while before midnight, at Salisbury Saturday night while Mr. W. W. Poole was sitting at home listening to his wife play on the piano his attention was attracted by a noise at a window. He discovered a white man there and covered him with a pistol, holding him till police officers could arrive. The man, who refused to give his name, was locked up in the city jail.

—Salisbury Special, July 14: It is an actual fact that work has commenced on the trolley line which is to connect Greensboro and High Point, and thus the most favorable indication yet for a trolley line has been made. The North Carolina Electric Company said it would build the road and it seems that this company is going to make good. Yesterday a number of carts and mules arrived, which swells the number to about 18 carts, 15 scrapers and 40 hands. By Monday it is intended to have nearly 100 men at work.

—At the session of North Carolina Press Association held at Chase City, Va., on Saturday, the following officers were elected: President, T. J. Lassiter; vice presidents, J. C. Hardy, W. B. Cochrane and H. R. Kinlay; secretary and treasurer, J. B. Sherrill; historian, M. L. Shipman; orator, Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D.; executive committee, Josephus Daniels, H. A. London, W. C. Dowd, Zeb P. Council and J. A. Thomas. The selection of the place of meeting was left to the executive committee. Mr. H. B. Varner was warmly endorsed for president of the National Association.

—Asheville special, July 15: The Henderson county Republican convention, which was to have been held yesterday, will not be held until August 4. The Buncombe county delegation to the State convention is still discussing the action of Col. Lusk and C. F. Toms and declare that they propose to acquaint the people of the two counties Buncombe and Henderson, with the true inwardness of the affair. The Buncombe delegates are hot and declare that Mr. Toms ought to be read out of the party. There are no signs of peace in the party hereabouts and Republicans say that, if the election was held today, the party could not elect a town constable in any county in the district.

—Saturday evening as the Seaboard Air Line eastbound train passed Rockingham, Hamibal Lake, a negro shot and killed his wife at the railroad station. Lake and his wife have been having trouble, owing to jealousy on her part. He told someone during the day on Saturday that he would kill her before night. She went to the depot Saturday night to leave Rockingham and while she was standing in the waiting room Lake approached her and asked her if she was not going back home and when she answered in the negative, he drew his pistol and shot her. The first ball struck her in the face. She turned to go and he shot her twice in the back. She went several yards and dropped dead. Lake left,, going east from Rockingham, and had not been arrested when the latest news was received.

—At Elizabeth City the question of bridging the Albemarle Sound is still far from being settled. The opposition seems more determined each day and will leave no stone unturned to defeat the measure. The latest recruit to the opposition forces is I. M. Meekins, postmaster at Elizabeth City, and the leader of the Republican forces in the east. He expresses his intention to fight the matter to the end and it seems now that his turning to help the opposing forces may put a new light on the situation. For some says it has seemed that those favoring the bridge would succeed without any trouble, but Meekins has brought aid of a substantial nature. It turns out Saturday that, when going from Washington to Greensboro with Secretary Taft Monday, he laid the matter before him, presenting all the reasons for not wanting the bridge and the Secretary has promised him not to be slow in acting.

—Agents of the Department of Commerce and Labor will soon be sent abroad to study market conditions for the benefit of American exporters. The appropriation for this work for the coming year was increased by Congress to $50,000. Of this sum $20,000 will be expended in the interest of the cotton trade of the country and two experts in the business, both of them from North Carolina, whose names will be withheld for the present, will be placed in charge of this branch of the inquiry by Secretary of Commerce and Labor Metcalf. The two agents that will be assigned to this work will visit Europe, China and Japan. They will go abroad the latter part of the month. While it is not officially stated, it is learned that the two men selected are Col. James H. Holt, of Burlington and Mr. Ed. H. Williamson, of Fayetteville.

—Lumberton special, July 14: Mr. N. A. Ratley, of Ashpole, a deputy sheriff, brought Walter Brigman, white, of Proctorville, here this afternoon and lodged him in jail in default of $700 bond. There are two charges against Brigman, one for carrying concealed weapons and the other for shooting at Mr. N. A. Carter. An excursion was run Thursday from Elrod to Wilmington and Brigman was among the crowd who went. He loaded up on whiskey and on the return trip last night between Orrum and Proctorville became so disorderly that Mr. Carter, manager of the excursion, put him off the train. He drew his gun and shot at Mr. Carter just as the train was moving off. The ball entered one of the windows, almost grazing some of the passengers and lodged in the top of the coach. Brigman was arrested yesterday afternoon and was tried last night before 'Squire D. L. Page. In default of a $700 bond he was committed to jail. Brigman is about 26 years old.

—Wadesboro Correspondence, July 14: Twenty-one men from Anson county will be tried in Monroe next week on the charge of lynching John V. Johnson in Wadesboro May 28th. The alleged lynchers are all out on bond in the sum of $5,000 each, as a result of the preliminary trial held before Judge Neal and Solicitor Robinson here June 1st. The lynching laws require that the trial be held in a county adjoining the one in which the act is done. Richmond county was suggested, but Mr. H. D. Kendall having testified that a party from Rockingham was expected to join the mob on the outskirts of town, the trial could not be held there, so it was moved to Union. Governor Glenn has employed Messrs. John T. Bennett, of Wadesboro, and R. B. Redwine, of Monroe, to assist Solicitor L. D. Robinson in the prosecution. Messrs. James A. Lockhardt, H. H. McLendon, T. L. Caudle and Fred J. Coxe, of Wadesboro; A. M. Stack, F. F. Griffin, J. C. Sykes, Williams & Lemmonds; Adams, Jerome & Armfield, and Robert L. Stephens, of Monroe, have been employed by the defence. Those who are under $5,000 bond for their appearance at court in Monroe Monday morning are: Messrs. Zeke Lewis, Joe Mechum, Clyde Bowman, John Jones, Elmire Dunn, Lester Johnson, J. W. Nivens, Frank Nivens, B. F. Timmonds, Otis Martin, Fred Dunn, May Guiledge, Lowes Adams, Jim Swink, Tom Adams, Billie Dean, Frank Graham, John McLaurin, W. C. Dunn, W. A. Nivens and Ira Johnson.

—Saturday morning at 6 o'clock, half a mile from Smithfield, the dead body of Alonzo Jones, a prominent merchant of Smithfield, was found lying in the road, he having been shot from the rear. The bullet entered just back of the right ear and came out at a corresponding spot on the opposite side of his head, piercing the lower part of the brain. It is not known definitely at what time of night the deed was committed, nor is it known who did it. In fact, there is a cloud of mystery surrounding the whole affair. It is believed that he was murdered for his money. A part of the evidence at the inquest developed the following facts: The deceased, who, with his brother, has a store in Smithfield, was in town Friday and, between 9 and 10 o'clock that night, was standing in front of Peacock's grocery store in a drunken conditon, talking to some negroes. He was trying to buy some houses and lots in the town and told one of the negroes he would give him $500 for the property and said he had them oney in his pocket to pay for it, at the same time displaying a roll of bills. This offer was refused. Soon afterwards he left, going in the direction of his father's home, three miles northwest of town, at which place he had been making his home. This was the last seen of him by any responsible persons until next morning at 6 o'clock when Mr. James Paterson, a white man of Smithfield, started fishing and found the body on Highland bridge, just beyond Neuse river.

MRS. ROSA B. MORRIS DEAD.

Good Woman Entered Into Rest Yesterday at Noon—Funeral.

Mrs. Rosa Belle Morris, wife of Mr. J. E. Morris and a woman held in the very highest esteem by all in the circle of her acquaintance, passed away yesterday at noon, after a lingering illness during which she bore her suffering with great fortitude. Mrs. Morris had been in very poor health for some time and while her death was not unexpected, it came as a sad blow to family and friends.

Mrs. Morris was in the forty-fourth year of her age and leaves besides the devoted husband, seven children, Mr. C. A. Morris, of Central City, Ky., who has been with his mother since the first of the month; Mr. Edward Morris, of Florence, S. C.; Mr. Jno. R. Morris, Bennie, Lela Belle, Bessie Virginia and Winfield Scott Morris, all of this city. She is also survived by her aged mother, Mrs. Catherine Turner, of Tarboro, whose feeble health will not permit of her attending the funeral, which will be conducted from the residence, No. 520 North Third street, this morning at 11 o'clock. The services will be by Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

CARGO OF PAVING BLOCKS.

Schooner Carrie A. Bucknam to Load At Standard Turpentine Plant.

Few people know that in Wilmington a high-grade wooden paving block is manufactured and that the enterprise bids fair to grow to even greater proportions. The schooner Carrie A. Bucknam, which has been discharging cargo of cement at the S. A. L. warehouses, was yesterday towed to the docks of the Standard Turpentine Company, formerly the Weed Distilling Company, where she will receive for New York a solid cargo of the blocks, being the first shipped by water from a plant recently installed here by the Standard Turpentine Company for the manufacture of this product. The blocks are given a coating of creosote according to a new process and the enterprise is said to be a very promising one.

Drayage and Transfer Business.

Mr. Thos. C. Ramsey, a popular young Wilmingtonian, has resigned his position as cashier at the Seaboard Air Line freight offices and has engaged in the drayage and general transfer business at foot of Chestnut street. Mr. Ramsey is a young man of good business ability and proposes to conduct the new enterprise along business lines. Only competent and reliable help will be employed and prompt and efficient service is guaranteed. His 'phone number is 1371. Mr. Ramsey is succeeded at the Seaboard Air Line offices by Mr. R. M. Schulken, who has been with the road some time and is thoroughly conversant with his new duties.

Funeral of Mr. Rogers.

From the family residence, on Greenville Sound, impressive funeral services were conducted at 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon over the remains of the late Mr. J. F. Rogers. A large number of members of Jeff Davis Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., and of Linden Grove, United Ancient Order of Druids, both of which lodges the deceased was a member, went down for the services, which were with the honors of both orders. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. W. G. Butler, George Sumlin and George Ziegler, of the Druids, and Messrs. E. C. Woodberry, J. M. Hewlett and T. W. Brown, of the Jr. O. U. A. M.

Colored Man's Body Recovered.

The body of John Durham, the negro riverman who was drowned from a flat near foot of Dock street a few nights ago, was found yesterday morning a short distance from where he went down. The neck was found to have been broken by the fall against some logs in the river alongside which the flat was being propelled when the negro missed his catch and plunged headlong forward. The man's head struck one of the logs and Dr. Bell ,the coroner, says that it is more than probable that he was killed before he struck the water. There was no evidence of foul play and no inquest was held.

Fell From Sound Trestle.

A negro who had started to walk over the trestle which spans the Banks channel at Wrightsville Beach, fell overboard Sunday about noon and had a narrow escape from drowning. He was rescued by Engineer Joe Jordan, of the houseboat Clifford, which was moored alongside the trestle. Mr. Jordan had a hard time bringing the negro in but finally succeeded. He had to swim for some distance and when he came ashore was nearly exhausted. The negro was profuse in his thanks for the kind act of the engineer.

the man's arrest. When the trial was called in Justice Bornemann's court at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, his attorney, Woodus Kellum, Esq., made the necessary affidavit of removal presumably on account of Ruth's having been previously before Justice Bornemann on a charge something similar, and the case was transferred to Justice Furlong. Capt. Robinson was represented by Louis Goodman, Esq., and the trial lasted practically all the afternoon. When it had been completed, Justice Furlong reserved his decison until 10 o'clock this morning.

Pending a decision of the case $25 bond was required of Ruth, in default of which he went to jail. A few days ago Mr. Owen Martindale, of this county, sent a load of watermelons to town by a colored driver named Cornelius Southerland, who was instructed to sell them at the best price. Ruth is alleged to have purchased the lot in much the same manner as he purchased the produce from Capt. Robinson and Mr. Martindale issued a civil summons against him in Justice Bornemann's court. Ruth responded to the summons, confessed judgment for the amount of the watermelons and stalked out of the Justice's office, according to all reports. When Capt. Robinson applied for a warrant yesterday, the justice decided to take him in the criminal branch of the law.

Saved Tots in Street.

The rare presence of mind and the bravery of Conductor Thos. Benson, of the Consolidated Company, probably saved the lives of two small children who were playing in the street, near Sixth and Princess, Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock. The tots were totally oblivious of any danger when a runaway horse, belonging to Messrs. Orrell & Alexander and attached to a light buggy, came dashing down the street. Conductor Benson was on his car coming up Princess street, saw the children, ran forward to them and bore them to a place of safety, taking refuge behind a tree on the sidewalk as the runaway passed, very close to where he stood with the children in his arms. The frightened animal dashed into a fence at the residence of Mr. I. M. Bear, on Princess street, and was stopped there.

Is a Sunday Mail Wanted?

The Morning Star learns that a great many of the patrons of the post-offices on the line of the Carolina Central railway are anxious to have a Sunday mail on the train leaving Wilimngton at 4:30 A. M. Well, as they have been heretofore informed, they can have the Sunday mail if they will make application for it through their respective postmasters. It is not a matter for the postmasters to decide. It is the voice of the people that prevails in this, as in many other cases.

MOTHER OF THAW AT TOMBS PRISON

Affecting Scene When Cell of Slayer of Stanford White Was Reached.

WAS SORROWFUL MEETING

Murderer's Mother Took Charge of Defense and Again Employed Law Firm Which Young Thaw Dismissed—Insanity Plea.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York July 16.—Immediately following her interview with her son, Harry K. Thaw, in the Tombs today, Mrs. William Thaw assumed full charge of the defense and arranged to retain the services as counsel of the firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber and Bonynge, who were dismissed by young Thaw a few days ago. This action is taken to mean that Harry Thaw's desires and opinions regarding the defense will be ignored and that reliance will be placed on the plea of insanity, insistence on which by Mr. Olcott resulted in the rupture of himself and his client. Whether an application will be made for the appointment of a committee on lunacy to determine young Thaw's mental condition will probably be determined at a conference to be held by Mrs. Thaw and the counsel tomorrow.

The meeting between Mrs. Thaw and her son at the Tombs was an affecting one. After the first greeting they were left alone together to converse through the bars of the cell for half an hour. During the interview the prisoner's wife stood in silence in the corridor a few feet away from the cell door, waiting her turn to speak with her husband. No words were exchanged between Mrs. Thaw and her daughter-in-law.

From the Tombs Mrs. Thaw was driven directly to the office of Levi L. Delafield where arrangements were made for former Judge Olcott's firm to resume charge of the case. When a note was sent to Harry Thaw this afternoon asking whether he concurred in the new arrangements the reply returned was "Mr. Thaw has nothing to say."

This evening Mrs. Thaw, accompanied by her son, Josiah and her son-in-law, George L. Carnegie, went to the latter's country seat at Roslyn, Long Island.

The largest crowd since Thaw was first taken to the Tombs had assembled in the street outside when Mrs. William Thaw arrived at the Tombs shortly before noon today. Her driver was compelled to force a passage through the crowd, which fairly blocked the street and when her cab stopped at the door the bystanders pressed forward so closely that the police had difficulty in making a line through them to permit Mrs. Thaw to pass into the prison.

Mrs. Thaw was met at the door by the prison warden who told her in an apologetic way that it would be necessary for her to comply with the prison rule that all visitors must be searched. Mrs. Thaw then retired to the rooms of the Tombs matron where the rule was complied with. The warden, Josiah C. Thaw and Mr. Peabody escorted her to the corridor in which Harry Thaw's cell is located and then withdrew after she had thanked them. Mrs. Thaw then made her way alone to cell No. 220 and greeted her son for the first time since he shot Stanford White.

As Mrs. Thaw reached the cell of her son it was seen that her daughter-in-law had left the consulting room and gone to the cell of her husband. When the young wife saw the mother approaching she slowly backed away from the cell to a spot some fifteen feet down the corridor. There was no sign of recogniton between the two. On the mother's arrival at the cell, Keeper John Smith saw that she was somewhat feeble and opened the door of Thaw's cell for the purpose of getting out the stool from the cell on which she might sit during the interview with her son. The mother not knowing the rules of the prison, upon seeing the door opened rushed forward to her son. In an instant both her arms were clapsed around the neck of her son while he with bent head clasped his mother to his breast. Tears streamed from the eyes of both mother and son. There ensued a few minutes silence, broken only by the mother's cry of "My boy!" "My boy!"

Keeper Smith stood, with his back turned for a short time, and then informed Mrs. Thaw that the prison rules allowed visitors to talk to prisoners only with bars separating them. The mother stepped out of the cell, while Smith shut the door and turned the key once more on Thaw. A small stool was then placed in front of the cell, and Mrs. Thaw took her seat on it, and continued talking to her son for about half an hour. She then kissed her son through the iron bars and was taken down stairs, where she was joined by Josiah C. Thaw who had been waiting for her in the consulting room.

While the elder Mrs. Thaw was in conversation with her son, his wife, Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, remained seated in the corridor, about 15 feet away from the cell, where she could see mother and son without being seen.

After the mother's departure, young Mrs. Thaw spent a few minutes with her husband and then hurried to the office of Mr. Hartridge where a council was held.

Mrs. Harry K. Thaw returned to the Tombs later accompanied by Mr. Hartridge and called on her husband. The attorney remained only a short time but Mrs. Thaw remained at the cell about an hour.

BLOODY GRAVES FOR FOUR PEOPLE

(Charlotte Observer.)

Barber Junction, July 15.—The funeral services and interment of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lyerly, their little daughter, Alice, and son, Johnnie, were held at Unity Presbyterian church this morning at 11 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Spence conducting the services. Unity Presbyterian church is an old house of worship, about two miles from the Lyerly home, of which all the Lyerly family were members. It is where their ancestors worshipped and they are buried there in the churchyard.

At an early hour this morning, though the weather was threatening, hundreds of people began to assemble at the ancestral home of the Lyerly family which u,p until Saturday, has been the home of three generations of this honorable family without blemish or stain. This morning this pretty country place was the site of a death-stricken home, there being four caskets containnig the remans of the Lyerly family, slain Saturday by a band of negro brutes.

By 10 o'clock more than one thousand people had gathered at the home there being people from all over the counties of Rowan, Iredell and Forsyth, and from the cities of Salisbury, Statesville, Winston, and Charlotte. When the funeral reached the church over two thousand people had fallen into line, which was over one and a half miles long, to pay their last tribute to their honored neighbors and friends. The procession arriving at the churchyard found the church crowded with people, who had not been able to get inside of the home, there being room left only for the remainng little girls and near relatives. The Rev. Mr. Spence preached a most beautiful sermon.

The three remainng little girls were calm and well composed, not realizing their cruel bereavement. No braver heroines ever lived than these three little girls, Mary, Addie and Janie.

The father, mother and two children were buried in one grave. Many beautful floral offerings were either brought or sent from the towns and cities nearby. The three children will reside with their neighbor, Mr. W. P. Barber, and their uncle, Mr. Alex. Lyerly, of Cleveland, until matters are adjusted.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 16.—The cotton market was only moderately active during to-day's trading, but prices ruled generally steady to firm and closed at a net advance of 8 to 11 points. Sales were estimated 75,000 bales.

The opening was steady at a net advance of 2 to 7 points in response to steady cables and covering of shorts on the reports of light to heavy rains all over the belt since last Saturday. But there seemed to be comparatively little scattering demand through wire and commission houses, and some of the local traders sold on the opening bulge on the idea that the market could not be sustained in the absence of general investment buying. Liverpool also acted rather easy after the local opening and prices here sagged back in the absence of buying. After a decline of only 3 or 4 points, the market firmed again and in the afternoon ruled a little more active on covering of early sellers and support from some of the prominent brokers supposed to be working for bull interests. The close was within a point or so of the top. Another warehouse fire was reported, said to involve about 2,000 bales of the losal stock. Southern spot markets were generally unchanged. The forecast was for continued showers, and private crop accounts remained about the same as last week, with the trade inclined to look for a bullish weekly review tomorrow.

Estimated receipts at the ports today 5,855 bales against 9,624 last week and 14,262 last year. For the week 25,000 bales against 27,636 last week and 103,715 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 2,607 bales against 2,466 last year and at Houston 261 bales against 4,339 last year.

DRYGOODS MARKET.

New York, July 16.—A firmer tone was evident in the dry goods market to-day, largely in consequence of a renewal of a demand for coarse sheetings and drills for domestic and export use. The China trade has recently taken 6,000 bales of four-yard and five-yard goods and the domestic demand has increased until an advance of ¼c. is recorded. Print cloths were firmer and bleached sheetings well sold for next ten weeks.

THE WAR SITUATION DOWN IN GUATEMALA

Cruiser Marblehead Arrives in Salvador Waters and Tendered to Belligerents for Peace Conference—Severe Fighting Reported.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, July 16.—The Navy Department was informed this afternoon by cablegram from Commander Mulligan, of the arrival of his ship, the Marblehead, at La Libertad from Panama, which port he left last Friday night. Before sailing Commander Mulligan was instructed by the Navy Department to report to the American Minister, Mr. Combs, at La Libertad, which is the port near San Salvador, the capital of Salvador. In the absence of Mr. Combs, who is detained at Champerico awaiting next Friday's steamer, Mr. Brown, the American secretary and charge in Salvador, will communicate with Commander Mulligan and that officer will place his ship at the disposal of the American legation, so that Mr. Brown will be in a position to carry out the instructions which were cabled to-day from Washington to profer to the governments of Salvador and Guatemala the use of this American warship as a place of meeting of the peace commissioners. It is stated that neither Minister Merry nor Messrs. Combs and Brown will act in the capacity of a peace commissioner to either country; they are charged simply as good friends to both parties to endeavor to bring the hostile nations into friendly relations without further loss of blood.

This is not the first time the deck of a United States man-of-war has been the scene of a peace conference; the Marietta was thus employed six or eight years ago in bringing about peace between Costa Rica and Salvador, the Philadelphia played a similar part at Panama during the revolution there about two years ago, and more recently Commander Dillingham brought the Monti Christi insurgents and the Dominican government's agents together off Monti Christi and secured peace on the deck of the Detroit.

The important development of the day, aside from the offer of the Marblehead, was an assurance to the State Department from President Cabrera that Guatemala would refrain from further hostilities if Salvador would undertake to do the same, which was promptly communicated to Minister Merry at San Salvador in order that he might transmit the proposition to the government at that place.

Another point developed was that Salvador and Honduras had entered into an alliance, the nature of which is not certainly known but it is believed by the officials here that the purpose is to agree upon the terms of peace that shall be proposed by the two countries to Guatemala.

Still another cablegram, this one from Minister Merry, informed the State Department that the government of Honduras insisted upon being considered along with Salvador in the peace negotiations with Guatemala.

Johnson, at Wadesboro on May 28: John McLaurin, Tom Adams, Zeke Lewis, Joe J. Meacham, Clyde C. Bowman, John Jones, Elmer Dunn, Lester Johnson, John W. Nevins, B. F. Timmons, Otis Martin, Fred Dunn, May Gulledge, Lewis Adams, Jim Swink, Frank Graham, Will C. Dunn, Will A. Nevins and Will Dew.

Judge Thomas J. Shaw is presiding. After the grand jury had entered the box, Judge Shaw said:

"It is a matter of common knowledge, gentlemen, that this is a special term of the court, called for the trial of citizens of Anson county, charged with lynching. If any of you have formed or expressed an opinion of guilt or innocence of the defendants, hold up your hands."

Two negroes were excused and the Judge continued:

"The reason I have asked these questions, gentlemen, is that from newspaper reports I learn that parties have been in this county seeking to mould opinion, either for or against the defendants, and I want to know if any of you gentlemen have been approached on the subject."

In charging the grand jury Judge Shaw said:

"There is no reason why we should deal with this question with gloved hands. I had just as well face it squarely. The charge against these men overshadows all other charges on the docket."

He emphasized the oath they had taken and elucidated the crime of perjury. The only escape for the guilty men is through perjury. "So help me God," he declared to the jury, "if justics should miscarry in this case I will not be responsible for it." He described the lynchers of Johnson as a mob of cowards and satirized their claim to good citizenship; he warned the jury against improper influences and said that the issue was clearly drawn between law and lawlessness, and that the men who participated in that mob "are guilty of murder in the first degree."

At the conclusion of the charge, the grand jury retired to consider the indictments against the alleged lynchers. At the afternoon session four true bills were returned and one not a true bill, five cases being considered so far.

Motion to quash the indictments was made and argued, and decision will be rendered to-morrow when court convenes. If the motion is denied the trial of Zeke Lewis will be taken up.

Both sides are represented by able counsel and it is evident that the case will be hard fought. The trial is being held in Union county, having been removed from Anson, the county in which the lynching occurred.

FISTIC BATTLE FAST AND BLOODY

JACK WAS UP AGAINST IT

Had Hardest Fight of His Career and Won Doubtful Advantage Over California Amateur—Both Men Badly Punished.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Philadelphia July 16.—Sam Berger, the California amateur heavy weight, tonight gave Philadelphia Jack O'Brien the hardest six round battle of his career. Notwithstanding that O'Brien continually sent his left to the chin and wind Berger came back and forced the fighting in every round.

Berger had the Philadelphian decidedly worried in the two closing rounds. When O'Brien led he would invariably jump in the air and swing his left arm around Berger's neck, the evident intention being to tire his heavy opponent. When the fight ended both men were covered with blood and the referee's shirt was crimson from his efforts to separate the men. The men entered the ring in perfect condition and as they had agreed to fight at catch weights no announcement was made of their respective weights. Berger's manager said that the Californian weighed about 200 pounds while O'Brien weighed close to 175. No decision is allowed in the bouts in this city, but it seemed to be the concensus of opinion that O'Brien had a slight advantage. Berger, however, surprised the spectators by his cleverness and also his gameness. Fight by rounds.

First Round—O'Brien had all the advantage and landed almost at will. His footwork seemed to dazle Berger, but as the round progressed the Californian improved.

Second Round—Berger opened a gash in O'Brien left eye and Jack had Berger bleeding freely from the nose. Both were covered with blood as they went to their corners. The round was slightly in O'Brien's favor.

Third Round—Berger opened up the cut over the left eye and in turn O'Brien had Berger's left eye almost closed.

Fourth Round—This was the most vicous round of the battle and honors were even when the gong sounded. Up to this time the fight had been one of the fastest witnessed between men in this city.

Fifth Round—O'Brien had the advantage in this round. He repeatedly landed his left to Berger's chin and wind and had the latter tired at the gong.

Sixth Round—O'Brien had a slight advantage in the closing round. He landed repeatedly but his blows did not have sufficient force behind them.

SEVERE EARTHQUAKE IN NEW MEXICO MONDAY

Considerable Damage Was Done in Sorocco and Neighboring Towns—Shock Was Heaviest of 200 Quakes in Past Two Years.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Santa Fe, N. M., July 16.—Considerable damage to property was done today at Socorro, San Marcial and nearby settlements by an earthquake shock, which was the severest of the 200 shocks that have occurred in that part of New Mexico during the last two years. The shocks are local and are caused by earthslides in the Magdalena Mountains.

People in State of Alarm.

Albuquerque, N. M., July 16.—This region to-day experienced another slight earthquake shock at noon. Pendant objects in Albuquerque moved perceptibly and a sickening sensation was experienced by many persons. No serious damage has been reported. People in the Armitajo building, thinking the building was about to collapse, ran to the street. Towns to the south of Albuquerque also felt the shock and residents of Socorro and San Marcial are in a state of alarm. Adobe buildings at Socorro were damaged.

Shock Felt in Colorado.

El Paso, Colo., July 16.—A distinct earthquake shock was felt here at 11:50 A. M. to-day. Buildings rocked and swayed and many persons fled to the streets. The thermometers and instruments in the weather bureau in the Federal buildings swung back and forth for several minutes. No damage was done.

PITTSBURG DIVORCE SCANDAL.

Probable Arrest of Young Woman Who Forged Hartje Letters.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Philadelphia, July 16.—It was reported this afternoon that the arrest of a young woman was expected soon on the charge of writing the Madine letters, which counsel for libellant in the Hartje divorce is trying to prove were written by Mrs. Hartje. The same persons, it is alleged, will also be charged with writing the letter threatening the life of Mrs. Mary Slocum, the friend of Mrs. Hartje, who has been the latter's daily companion since the opening of the divorce case. The taking of testimony in the Hartje divorce case was postponed until tomorrow. Attorney M. Freeman, counsel for Mrs. Hartje, informed Judge Frazer that the defense had been unable to obtain possession of the Madine letters for the plaintiff, who had refused to turn them over. Without the letters, he said, the defense could not proceed and he, therefore, asked for an adjournment.

Judge Frazer granted the continuance, after ordering the plaintiff's counsel to relinquish the exhibits to the defense. The Judge then proceeded to deliver a severe lecture to the counsel.

"This case," said he, "is not being tried open and above board. It is a disgrace the way counsel have acted and I have been thinking about keeping everybody out of the court room. I read in the papers Saturday that counsel would give up the letters when they got good and ready. Every day a new sensation is promised. There has been entirely too much said in the newspapers about this case. Counsel had better be a little more careful in the future. One side is as bad as the other."
